

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

Save The Date!

New Student Orientation is a comprehensive summer program designed to welcome and acclimate new students and families to college practices, resources and programs. Students will meet with an Advisor, register for classes, connect with other new RIC students, get their Student ID & Parking Pass, and more. In the Fall, all new students will participate in an additional program - Anchors Away Day - as they begin the start of the semester.

First-Year Students: are required to attend the Two-Day Program & Anchors Away Day

Transfer & Adult Students: are required to attend the One-Day Program, & invited to participate in Anchors Away Day

Families: are invited to attend a One-Day program offered on the first day of each program
